

* Champakam Dorairajan Case (1961) — SC ruled that b/w FR & Dir's, FR would prevail & also FR is amendable by constitutional amendment to give effect to directive principle.

* Cooper Case (1970) — Related to ordinance making power of president. SC ruled President satisfaction can be questioned in court on ground of malafide. (Pg. 17-12)

* D.C. Wadhwa Case (1987) — SC ruled that excessive promulgation of ordinance with same text without any attempt to get it passed by assembly will amount to violation of constitution.

* Kihota Hollohan Case (1992) — SC analysed the various provision of 52nd amendment which inserted schedule 10 (Anti defection). SC ruled the amendment legal & subject to judicial review.

IAS PCS Pathshala

* L. Chandra Kumar Case (1997) — SC held that appeal against the tribunal should lie in front of High Courts. (As initially tribunals were treated at par to HC & appeal against it lies before SC) (Pg. 71.2)

* Lily Thomas Case (2013) — SC struck down sec 8(c) of RPA, 1951 that allowed convicted lawmakers a 3-month period for filing appeal to higher court & get a stay on conviction & sentence.

* Loke Prashadi Case (2018) — SC asked for disclosure of income for contesting candidates.

Case	Important Supreme Court judgments
Golaknath and State of Punjab 1967	Supreme Court ruled that Parliament could not restrict any of the Fundamental Rights of individuals enshrined in the Constitution
Keshavananda Bharti and State of Kerala 1973	Golaknath case was overruled and parliament recaptured the power of amending and by virtue of the amending power cannot change the basic structure of the constitution.
Minerva Mills and Union of India 1980	Fortified the idea of the basic structure which was put forward earlier in the Keshavananda Bharti Case.
Waman Rao and Union of India 1981	This case has facilitated in determining a satisfactory way of addressing grievances pertaining to the violation of fundamental rights.
Mohd Ahmed Khan and Shah Bano Begum 1985	This case challenged the Muslim petition law.
MC Mehta and Union Of India 1986	Enlarged the scope and sphere of Article 32 and Article 21 to incorporate the right to healthy and pollution-free environment
Indra Sawhney and Union of India 1992	It defined the "creamy layer" criteria and uphold the execution of the recommendations made by the Mandal Commission
First Judges Case or S.P. Gupta case 1981	The ruling gave the Executive dominance over the Judiciary in judicial appointments for the next 12 years
Second Judges Case or Supreme Court Advocates on Record Association versus Union of India 1993	The majority verdict gave back Chief Justice of India's power over judicial appointments and transfers.
Three judges case or Special Reference case of 1998	Chief Justice of India must check with a plurality of four senior-most Supreme Court judges to shape his opinion on judicial appointments and transfers.
SR Bommai and Union of India 1994	This has created major repercussion on Center-State relations
Vishaka and State of Rajasthan 1997	Introduction of Vishaka Guidelines and provided basic definition of sexual harassment at the workplace