

UNREDD and REDD+

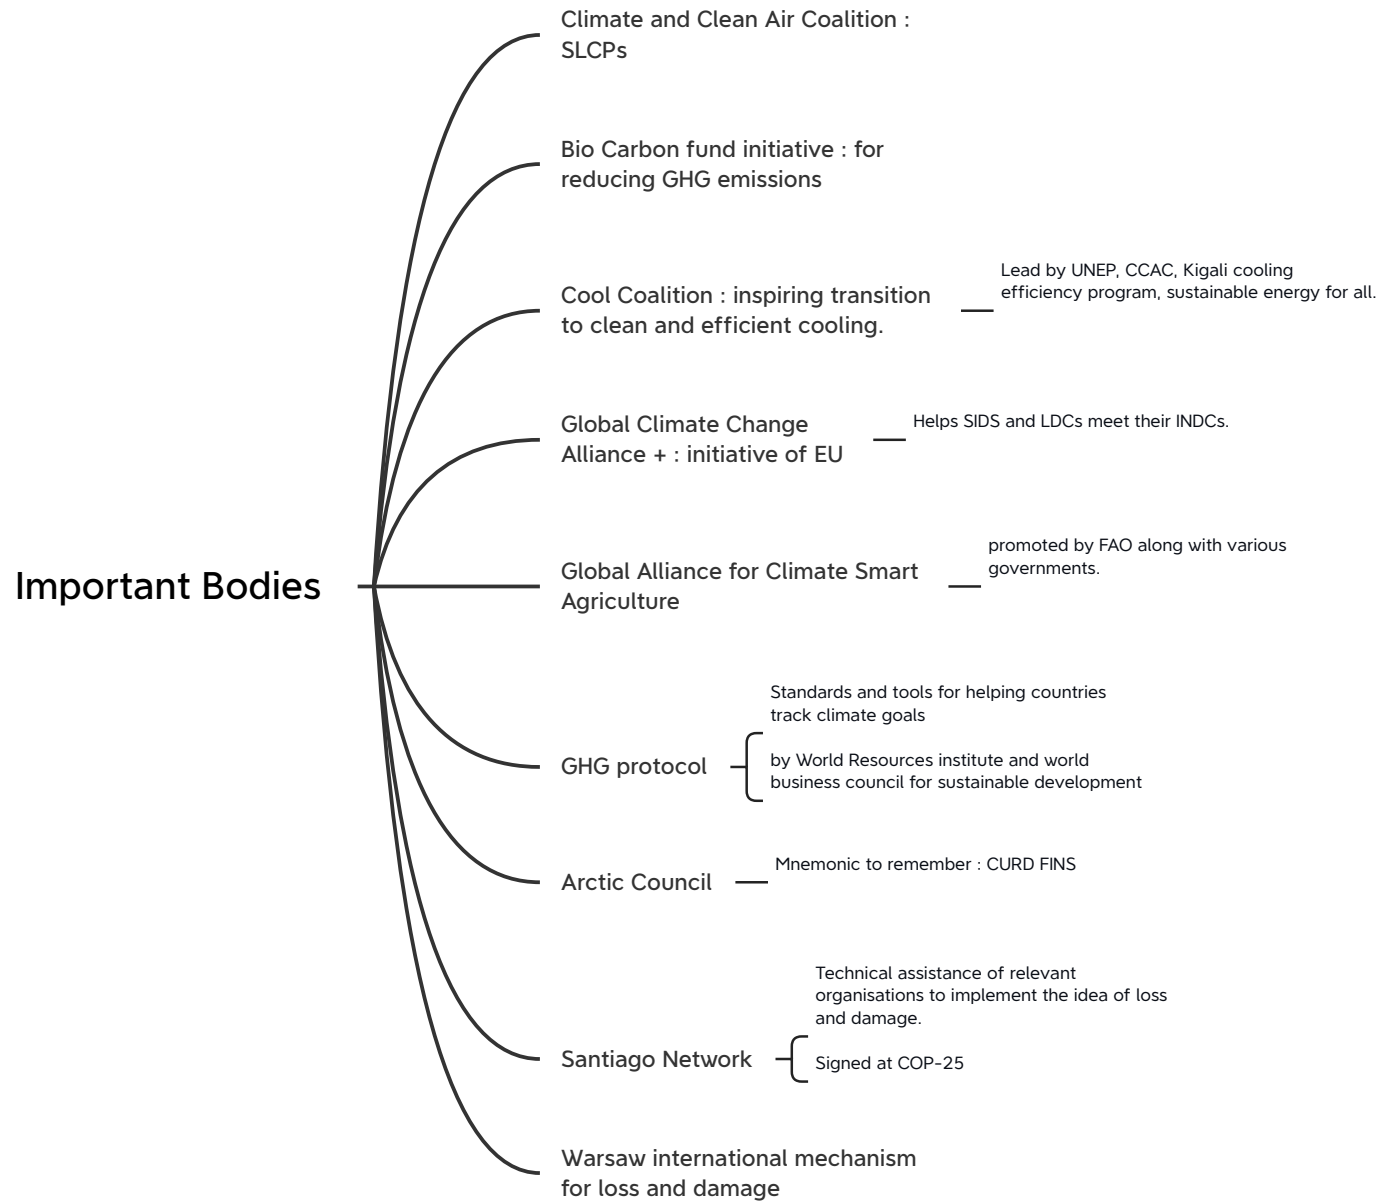

Reducing emissions from deforestation and forest degradation

Plus : involves further activities like involving the local community, dealing with poverty etc.

Forest Carbon Partnership Facility : global partnership for REDD+

World Bank is the trustee

IPCC

Setup by WMO and UNEP

Produces reports to submit to UNFCCC

Assessment reports : currently 6th cycle is ongoing

Working groups

WG1 : physical scientific basis

WG2 : Vulnerability of socio economic and natural systems.

WG3 : mitigation methodologies

3 special reports

SR 1.5, SRCCL, SROCC

Unique points in the reports :
Ocean warming has accounted for 91% of the heating in the climate system

UN Convention on Biological Diversity

All UN members except the United States have ratified this treaty

Topmost decision maker : COP

India ratified in 1994 : Biodiversity Act, 2002 and related bodies

3 additional protocols

Cartagena protocol on biosafety

Transport of LMO

Advanced Informed Agreement

Biosafety Clearing house for information sharing

Nagoya Kuala Lumpur supplementary protocol for liability and redress.

Nagoya Protocol on access and benefit sharing

Prior informed consent

Mutually Agreed Terms

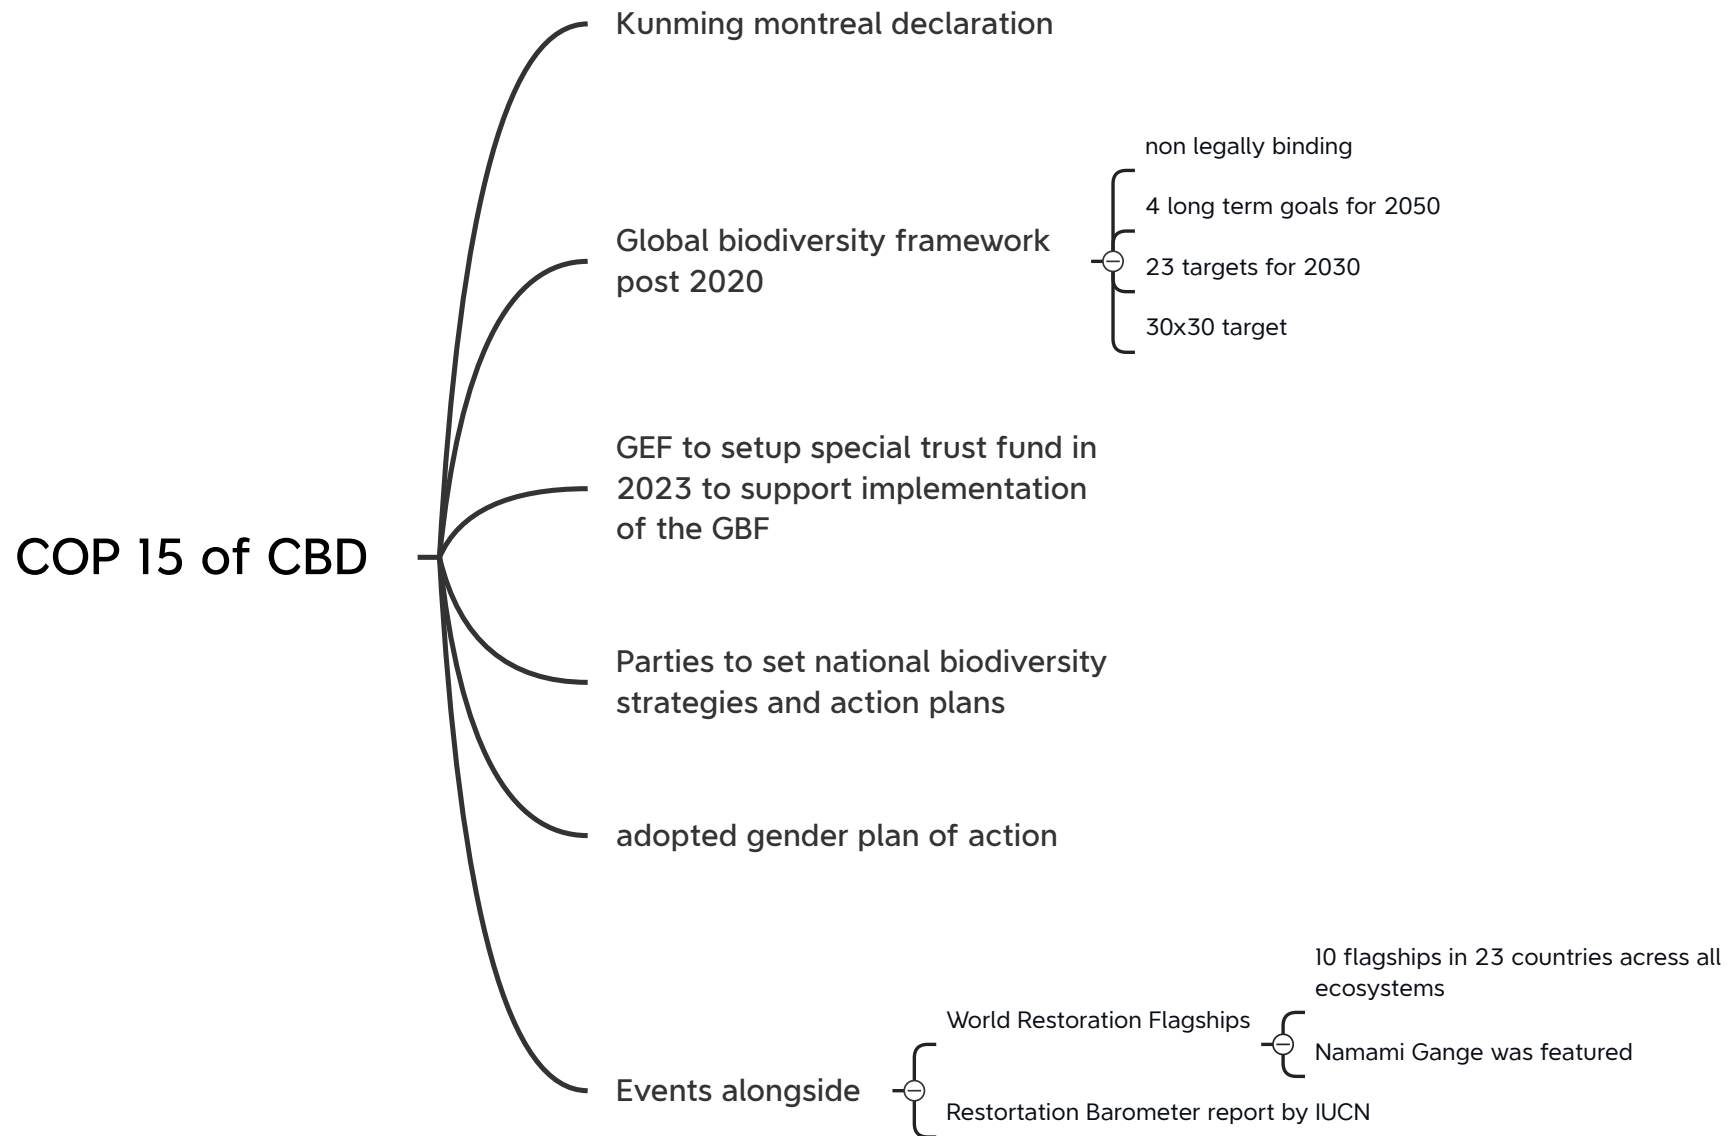

Report : Global Biodiversity Outlook

Aichi Biodiversity Targets

Failed on all fronts

Sharm al sheikh : new deal for nature

International Treaty on Plant genetic resources for food and agriculture

works in sync in CBD

recently governing body 9 council meeting was held in India

Implemented in India by National Bureau of Plant Genetic Resources

Benefit Sharing funds

Multilateral systems of Access and Benefit Sharing

Digital Sequencing Information

High Seas Treaty

Biodiversity beyond national jurisdiction high seas are beyond the EEZ / continental shelves of countries.

work alongside the UNCLOS

please revise UNCLOS from the slides

UN Ocean Conference

India was a participant

India committed to coastal clean seas programme

UN decade of ocean science for sustainable development

Lisbon declaration

Unesco launched state of the ocean report

30% of global ocean in marine protected areas.

